

If you're looking for an open door into the world of marketing and advertising, this is the program for you.

COLABORATORY is a rocket-fueled, experiential marketing internship where tomorrow's adventurous and inspired creatives prove their stuff by setting egos aside and bringing talent to the table.

THE BASICS

- 6 weeks
- 10 participants
- 3 agency experiences
- 2 competing teams
- 1 big pitch

COLABORATORY is a unique creative industry experience sponsored by the Portland Ad Federation, setting a precedent as the first multi-agency/multi-disciplinary internship.

Interns are paired with 3 agencies based on their strengths and interests. They spend 2 intensely focused weeks at each agency learning from all disciplines. During the six weeks working at agencies across Portland, interns will also form 2 competing teams to develop a campaign pitch for a popular Oregon brand.

COLABORATORY gives interns a broad view of how agencies work, and at the same time lets them learn how to work together.
